

The intersection between the chine extension and the stem head shall be between 311 and 387 mm up from the base line.