Mid-Winter Zimmerman Cup Won by Jeff Lenhart

San Diego sailmaker Jeff Lenhart and crewman Bud Wilkinson dominated the final leg of the 1974 Zimmerman Cup Snipe championship, the Mid-winter championships in Nassau, Bahamas, to capture the coveted one-design trophy. The Mid-winter series includes the five race Dudley Gamblin Memorial series and the Bacardi Cup, a three race effort. Lenhart had two firsts and a third in the opening Bacardi series, and put together three firsts, a third and an eighth place finish to top the Gamblin races.

Terry Timm of Detroit placed second in the Bacardi Cup, followed by the consistent Earl Elms, another San Diego sailmaker. And still another SD sailmaker, Tom Nute ran second in the Gamblin series, with Miami's Gonzalo Diaz third.

In the overall Zimmerman Cup standings, which included results from the Tampa Snipe Regatta and the Don Q Regatta, Lenhart was followed in order by Timm, Don Hite of Detroit and Peter Duvoisin of Chattanooga.

Host Club was the Royal Nassau Sailing Club and the races were staged in picturesque Montagu Bay.
