

Mark Reynolds Captures Winter Series Zimmerman Trophy

Don Q, Nassau events wrap up season of challenging competition

Reynolds Leads Pack At Don Q Rum Keg Regatta

Friday, March 13:

First race sailed with light Southerly winds. Augie Diaz and Alex Caviglia led all the way around never to be challenged. Second at the finish line was John Shadden and Steve Rosenberg, third was Gonzalo (Old Man) Diaz and daughter Ana.

Second race sailed on Westerly winds that finally turned into a squall with Greg Fisher and Dan Neri leading all the time, Augie Diaz in second place and Mark Reynolds and Pat Muglia in third.

Saturday, March 14

The day started with a light Northerly breeze, and the first race was won by Mark Reynolds, second John Jennings and his son representing the St. Petersburg Yacht Club and in third place Greg Fisher.

The second race with a nice breeze from the East was won by Don Martin-borough and Scot Brown from Nassau, a way to go for the Bahamians!! Jeff Lohr and Sean Beihl in second place and Dave Helmick and his brother in third place.

Sunday, March 15

Last race with light Southerly winds. Mark Reynolds and Pat Muglia won the last race for a solid clinch to Mark's third consecutive win of the Don Q. Second place was Steve Suddath and wife Connie (Steve is District IV Governor) and third place John Jennings.

Race Committee and Regatta Chairman Jim Weber in his SEVENTH consecutive Don Q did a SUPER JCB with Coconut Grove Sailing Club members' huge support! That included our Commodore Rick Preston and his wife Louise. Free beer on Friday and Sunday. The Don Q Rum Party on Saturday with plenty of daiquiries and a cook-out also on Sunday. WAAAAOOH!! Again, thank you Don Q Rum (Serralles) and the Coconut Grove Sailing Club for sponsoring the XV Annual Don Q Rum Keg Snipe Regatta!!!

Lenhart, Reynolds Clash For Bacardi, Gamblin Honors

The Royal Nassau Sailing Club was host to the annual Bacardi Cup and SCIRA Winter Championship held March 18th-21st in Montagu Bay, Nassau, Bahamas.

Of the 27 entries 18 were from the U.S.A. and nine from Nassau. The visiting Snipes were transported across the Gulf from Miami on the M.V. "Betty K."

We were honoured in having renowned Star sailor Charlie deCardenas come over from Miami to be Race Committee Chairman. He had his hands full with the weather. It took three days to sail the three Bacardi Cup Races. Opening day was fine with southerly winds of about 16 knots. At the end of the day two races had been sailed and Mark Reynolds, Jeff Lenhart and Sam Mollet were way out in front. Mark and Jeff had a first and third

Scientific Sailboat Racing

Thoroughly revised and updated by Ted Wells and Lowry Lamb. Illustrated with diagrams and photographs. Since it was first published in 1950 and through one revision in 1958, Scientific Sailboat Racing has established itself as a classic of its kind for small-boat sailors. Now, it has been thoroughly overhauled to take advantage of the latest developments, particularly in equipment, that have come about in the last twenty years of sailboat design and handling.
