

Want . . . .

To represent the United States at the Pan American Games?

The opportunity to race internationally on a regular basis?

To compete with some of the best sailors in the World?

A really competitive and fun, but affordable race boat?

Then Come and Sail a Snipe. You are invited to Join Us.

THE MIAMI SNIPE INVITATIONAL CLINIC & REGATTA

Clinic - Thursday, January 5th and Friday, January 6th (12:00 – 5:00)

All sailors new to the Snipe will be paired with a highly skilled Snipe crew or skipper to help them learn the nuances of the boat. The clinic will include rigging & tuning as well as boat handling and short course racing. Coaches will include US National Champions and World Champions from the Miami Fleet.

Regatta – Saturday, January 7th and Sunday January 8th

A series of 6 races will be sailed. The highest placing team with a both sailors under the age of 22 will earn the right to represent North America at the 2012 Western Hemisphere Championship in Buenos Aires. The highest placing team new to the Snipe class will win a free charter at the Don Q International Regatta held in Miami in March. The second highest placing new team will earn a free charter at the Trofeo Comodoro Rasco in February.

Venue: Boats will be sailed from the US Sailing Center and Coral Reef Yacht Club

Entry Fee Per Team: $60

Charter Boats & Sails: Only $50 to cover insurance for charter equipment

Housing: Limited, on first come- first serve basis

Transportation: Provided from Miami Intl. Airport (Arrangements must be made in advance)

Charter Boat Deadline: December 22nd

Contact: ktocke@hotmail.com