New web communication platform in planning!

Fluent and timely communication is very important for an active international community like the Snipe Class. Today we have two main web channels, snipe.org and SnipeToday.org, for keeping our members updated. In addition, SnipeToday is also active on Facebook.

Just recently the Snipe Board of Governors approached SnipeToday founders and editors, Pietro Fantoni and Carol Cronin, with a proposal to build a joint web platform for Snipe Class communication. The benefits of a new set-up were noted together and a project for planning and implementation was quickly started.

The objective for the new platform is to improve communication and make information available easier for the class members, potential new Snipe sailors and other stakeholders.

This is achieved by combining the best parts of current SnipeToday.org and snipe.org:

- SnipeToday is one of the best-known brands in sailing. SnipeToday.org is the #1 platform for news, articles and discussion with daily updates and dynamic look and friendly user interface.
- snipe.org is reliable source for official Class information from boat specs to Class Rules and organization.

The project is currently moving from planning stage to building the first prototypes. The launch of the new web platform is planned to happen during the 3rd quarter of 2021.

Stay tuned and stay healthy!

From The Commodore

Hello friends,

Despite our best wishes, at this time of the year it already seems that our 2021 is going to be tainted by Covid from start to finish as 2020 was.

If we are lucky, we will be able to do some of the events of the second semester, in countries where the summer is beginning, but we will be far from having a normal year.

Throughout this pandemic, nautical activity has survived thanks to the constant effort of those who step by step, and sometimes failure by failure, have tried time after time to organize local regattas. The immense value of this effort is difficult to measure, but it is valued by every sailor who has the possibility of crossing a finish line. Those of us who cannot do it, we just look at the photos and hope for better days.

This unfortunate situation that we have to live as a species, has greatly harmed us all, but it has also taught us. Not only to behave in the face of illness, but to appreciate the immense value of our freedom in general and of our activity in particular, things that perhaps we previously took for granted many times.

At SCIRA we have been working all these months looking for the best way to deal with this year's situation.

In 2020, when we were the first class to cancel the entire international calendar, we received a lot of criticism, public and private, but we were convinced that the situation required that for the protection of our members. It was not an easy decision, nor a hasty one, but an informed and painful one. The other classes ended up doing the same sooner or later. We were the first, and the one who goes through the glass first always gets hurt ...

2021 is different. With the vaccine being distributed in so many countries, it seemed hasty to cancel a complete international calendar without knowing the degree of immunity in the middle of the year and we have decided to analyze event by event. We have proposed a method and a structure to do it, and we are working on that. Unfortunately, the Master Worlds and the South American have been canceled, but several national championships have been raced and we still dream of the European, the WH&O and many others.

But this is not all. At SCIRA we have carried out a very large cut in our expenses, and we had the support of our members, you, who in 2020 have paid their dues with a scope of 83% compared to 2019, despite having hardly sailed. This speaks of us as a class, you as members and SCIRA as a leadership. We as a family. I can only say: thank you!

At the same time, some proposals for the rules have been presented, authorities have been replaced, and we are carrying out a process of renovating the image of the class. Not only from our web page but possibly in the coming months we will have a big surprise for you. This is not the channel to report it. You will need to wait! Believe me it will be incredibly good

Both I and all the members of the Board are very excited about the changes to come and how they may impact the future of the class.

They will not be immediate, they will take some time, because we want to do them well. I will most likely not see them as your Commodore, but I will surely enjoy them as a member when they are finished.

Finally, and hoping not to be repetitive, I repeat my request to support the small businesses that live off the class, especially the small boat, rigging, and sail factories. They are not only ceasing to sail, but to work. If you can, help out by buying their products. Sooner rather than later you will use them.

I say goodbye wishing you a very good summer, and a not very cold winter, depending on where you are in the world.

Stay safe!

SCIRA Hall of Fame - 2021

The Snipe Class has a long history of which very few other classes can be boast.

It is a history of people, sailors, champions, enthusiasts, promoters, sailmakers, builders and organizers.

The past is strongly linked to the present: all these people have helped to promote and grow our Class in many countries and continents; many of these people are still strongly linked to the Class or have been, when they were alive, to form a large family, the Snipe Family, from great-grandparents to grandchildren. Past and present are strongly united in the Snipe Class.

Nominations are now being accepted for consideration to the SCIRA Hall of Fame. <https://www.snipe.org/members/hall-of-fame>

Report from Europe

Getting back?

In a normal year, sailing season would already have started strong in Europe. After the winter season the boats would be out again, and activity ramping up. But after a stressed year, we are still waiting for the health weather to improve. Some of our colleagues have been sick with the virus, even we all have been very careful obeying regulations and health measures.

Most countries are still under hard restrictions. On the positive side, we can also see activities for easing up the limitations as the vaccinations are expanding in the population.

European National Secretary team have been keeping contact with monthly video calls sharing experiences and views. Many countries have kept up virtual activities to educate and entertain the members. Only Spain has been able to run some events with restrictions in place.

This year the main events in Europe are Europeans, South Europeans and Junior Europeans. Luckily all of these regattas are in the far end of the summer, so we all hope that the travelling will be eased by then.

If everything works out well, we can enjoy the hospitality of the Sailing Club Split in August/September by the beautiful Adriatic Sea. South Europeans will also be a big open event with Real Club Nautico Vigo having its 80 years celebration. European Juniors will gather the best junior teams together in Almeria in September.

As the sailors are eager to get back on the waves after a demanding period, I am sure that when the season is ready and allowed to start the activity will be on a very high level. Starting at the individual and fleet level and followed by the international regattas.

There is still time to get yourself and your snipe shipshape for the summer and also renew your SCIRA membership.

Looking forward to getting back to normal!

Snipe Ranking Guidelines

SCIRA has an agreement with the SSL (Star Sailors League) whereby if we provide regatta results, they will calculate an international ranking system for us. In order to have a great ranking system, we need the cooperation of all regatta organizers and National Secretaries to encompass as many events and sailors as possible.

Read the guidelines to the right to help gather the information. Use this link to download the excel template (save as a csv file) and then send to the SnipeToday editor or the SCIRA office. It's that easy!

Results Template

Guidelines for sending regatta results for the International Ranking

The purpose of these guidelines is to facilitate the loading of results into the SSL database.

- It is necessary to fill in all fields in the attached file.
- In particular it is important to fill in the "Sailor ID" field.
- Sailor ID means SCIRA memberID number.
- The SCIRA member ID can be found by entering the name of the sailor and checking the corresponding number at this link:
- The SCIRA member ID is used to avoid duplications or errors with the names of sailors (for example: Martin Bermudez or Martin Bermudez de la Puente or Martin Bermudez de la Puente Gallego).
- Using the SCIRA member ID also makes it possible for SCIRA to check that the sailor is a member in good standing.
- Fill in the number of races, correctly indicating the DNC or DNS boats in the individual races.
- Send the file to editor@snipetoday.org
- The file will then be forwarded to the SSL Team, which will upload it to the "machine", a complex excel file, on which the International Ranking regattas are loaded.
- Results in .jpeg format are absolutely to be avoided.

Thanks for your collaboration!
